

BY TEENS FOR TEENS: OUTSIDE THE BOX PROGRAMMING

PRESENTER: Jack Martin, Assistant Director for Public Programs/Lifelong Learning for Children, Teens and Families at The New York Public Library

What's up in the world of teens in your library? What are they interested in? How can you turn that into a library program? This session will showcase a number of creative and successful outside the box program for teens, including:

- “ANTI PROM”

<http://www.nypl.org/audiovideo/anti-prom-2009-episode-1>

<http://www.nypl.org/audiovideo/anti-prom-2009-episode-2>

<http://www.nypl.org/audiovideo/anti-prom-2009-episode-3>

- TURN IT UP! @ Your Library

<http://www.nypl.org/audiovideo/intro-turn-it-teen-central>

<http://www.nypl.org/audiovideo/intro-turn-it-96th-street>

- Video Game Design and more!

Websites:

www.playing4keeps.org

Global Kids' Playing for Keeps, focusing on training educators how to facilitate programs using digitally-based learning styles.